

I am strongly opposed to changing Indiana's phone privacy laws. Prior to this year I would receive up to 6 hang-ups a day and just as many telemarketing calls at all hours. When this new law came into effect at the beginning of this year, I immediately noticed a difference. It has enabled me to drop my caller ID and saved me a significant amount of time and grief. Please leave the current policy in place. Thank you.